

Roots to the Future

"The major international conference for root researchers"

Professor Peter Gregory, President, ISRR

26-29 June 2012
Dundee, Scotland

Call for Abstracts
now open

The eighth symposium of the International Society of Root Research (ISRR) will mark the 30th anniversary of the Society's founding, and its first meeting in the UK. Topics include: Root physiology, rhizosphere, environmental interactions, genetics, model species, crops, grasses, woody plants.

Abstract deadline 12 December 2011.

Early bird registration open until end March 2012.

Social programme will include conference dinner at The Fairmont, in St Andrews, home of golf.

More information at:

www.rootresearch.org

Keynote Speakers include:

Jonathan Lynch (USA)

Malcolm Bennett (UK)

Michelle Watt (Australia)

Philippe Hinsinger (France)

Bob Sharp (USA)

Fusuo Zhang (China)

Heljä-Sisko Helmisaari (Finland)

Peter Gregory (UK)

Jun Abe (Japan)

ISRR

International Society of Root Research

To be hosted by The James Hutton Institute

